SWAP AGREEMENTS

General

The class A notes will be denominated in US dollars and the issuing entity will be obliged to make US dollar payments of interest and repayments of principal in respect of the class A notes. However, certain amounts received by the issuing entity will be denominated in sterling. In order to reduce the risk to the issuing entity of adverse exchange rate movements, the issuing entity and Barclays Bank PLC (the "swap counterparty") will enter into a currency swap transaction in relation to the class A notes.

Details of the organisational form and general character of the business of Barclays Bank PLC are set out in the base prospectus and the prospectus supplement.

Subject to the provisions set out under "Early Termination" below under the terms of the currency swap transaction relating to the class A notes, the issuing entity will pay to the swap counterparty:

- (a) on or after the issue date, an amount in US dollars to be paid in respect of the proceeds received by the issuing entity on the issue of the class A notes;
- (b) on each interest payment date, an amount in sterling determined by reference to applying a floating rate of interest to the relevant currency amount (as determined pursuant to the swap confirmation); and
- (c) on the scheduled redemption date, an amount in sterling determined in accordance with the provisions of the swap confirmation.

In return, the swap counterparty will be obliged to pay to the issuing entity:

- (a) on or after the issue date, an amount in sterling calculated by reference to the US dollar proceeds of the issue of the class A notes converted into sterling at the relevant exchange rate as provided in the swap agreement;
- (b) on each interest payment date, an amount in US dollars determined by reference to applying a fixed or floating rate of interest (as the case may be) to the relevant currency amount; and
- (c) on the scheduled redemption date, an amount in US dollars determined in accordance with the provisions of the swap confirmation.

Early Termination

The currency swap transaction may be terminated prior to its scheduled termination date in certain circumstances, including, but not limited to, the following:

- (a) subject to the provisions of the confirmation in respect of such currency swap transaction and any applicable grace periods, at the option of the issuing entity if there is a failure by the swap counterparty to pay any amounts due under the swap agreement and at the option of the swap counterparty in certain circumstances if there is a failure to pay amounts due under the swap agreement by the issuing entity;
- (b) at the option of the issuing entity, if a rating downgrade occurs with respect to the swap counterparty (as specified in the swap agreement relating to the currency swap transaction) and the swap counterparty fails to cure such rating downgrade within the requisite time period;
- (c) at the option of the swap counterparty, if an Event of Default occurs under Condition 11 of the terms and conditions of the notes and the note trustee delivers an Enforcement Notice;
- (d) if certain events occur with respect to either party to the currency swap transaction (or the currency swap transaction itself), including, but not limited to, certain insolvency related events, merger without an assumption of the obligations in respect of the swap agreement, or changes in law resulting in the currency swap transaction becoming illegal;
- (e) if a withholding tax is imposed, (1) in relation to the issuing entity's payments under the swap agreement (at the option of the swap counterparty in accordance with the provisions of the swap agreement) and (2) in relation to the swap counterparty's payments under the swap agreement (at the option of the issuing entity in accordance with the provisions of the swap agreement);

- (f) at the option of the swap counterparty or the issuing entity (provided that the class A noteholders shall first have directed the note trustee by way of extraordinary resolution to terminate the currency swap transaction relating to such notes), if a withholding tax is imposed in relation to the issuing entity's payments under the notes; and
- (g) at the option of the swap counterparty, if any amendment and/or supplement is made to the note trust deed, the issuing entity master framework agreement or the terms and conditions of the notes without the swap counterparty's prior written consent, and where such amendment and/or supplement would be reasonably expected to result in the swap counterparty being required to pay more or receive less than it would otherwise have been required to prior to such amendment and/or supplement.

Upon any such early termination of the currency swap transaction, either the issuing entity or the swap counterparty may be liable to make a termination payment to the other. Initially, the amount of any early termination payment will be based on the market value of the terminated swap transaction. This market value will be determined on the basis of market quotations of the cost of entering into a swap transaction with the same terms and conditions that would have the effect of preserving the economic positions of the parties prior to termination of such swap transaction. Alternatively, if such market quotations are not available or if using such market quotations to calculate the early termination payment would not produce a commercially reasonable result, the early termination payment will be determined on the basis of the parties loss arising out of the termination of the swap. Any such termination payment may, if interest rates and/or the relevant currency exchange rate had changed significantly, be substantial.

Upon termination of the currency swap transaction, if no replacement swap transaction has been obtained the security under the note trust deed (and the note trust deed supplement) in respect of the class A notes will become enforceable. If such security is enforced, the proceeds thereof will be applied in payment of amounts set out under the order of priority of payments set forth in the terms and conditions of the class A notes. In the event that the swap agreement with respect to the class A notes is terminated other than as a result of a Swap Counterparty Swap Event of Default (as defined below), then to the extent the net sums realised on the secured assets are insufficient to pay all the amounts due, if any, to the swap counterparty pursuant to the termination provisions of the swap agreement, the shortfall between amounts realised in relation to the relevant medium term note certificate and such amounts payable to the swap counterparty shall be borne first by the holders of the class A notes and then by the swap counterparty.

Certain events including without limitation, failure to pay or deliver, misrepresentation, insolvency or bankruptcy pertaining to the swap counterparty or a downgrade of the swap counterparty which the swap counterparty fails to cure within the requisite cure period (a "Swap Counterparty Swap Event of Default") may result in the early termination of the swap agreement. In the event that the swap agreement is terminated as a result of a Swap Counterparty Swap Event of Default, then any termination payment to be paid to the swap counterparty by the issuing entity in accordance with the early termination provisions of the swap agreement shall be subordinated to any payments to be made under the class A notes.

The swap counterparty's payment obligations pursuant to the swap agreement are subject to the condition that no event of default has occurred and is continuing with respect to the issuing entity pursuant to the swap agreement.

Taxation

Neither the issuing entity nor the swap counterparty is obliged to gross up any of its payments under the swap agreement if withholding taxes are imposed on payments made under the swap agreement.

In the event that any withholding tax is imposed on payments to be made to the issuing entity under the currency swap transaction then the issuing entity may terminate the currency swap transaction and either the issuing entity or the swap counterparty may be required to pay a swap termination payment to the other party. In the event that any withholding tax is imposed on payments to be made by the issuing entity under the currency swap transaction, the swap counterparty shall be entitled to deduct amounts in the same proportion (as calculated in accordance with the provisions of the confirmation relating to such currency swap transaction) from the corresponding payment due from it. In such event, payments on the class A notes will be subject to deferral in proportion to the amount so deducted. In the event that any withholding tax is imposed on payments due by the swap counterparty under the swap agreement, the issuing entity shall not be entitled to deduct corresponding amounts from the corresponding payments due from it and payments on the class A notes will be subject to deferral in proportion to the amount so withheld by the swap counterparty.

Pursuant to the provisions of the swap agreement, if on the next date that either party was required to make a payment under the swap agreement, such party would be required by any applicable law (or action taken by a relevant taxing authority or court of competent jurisdiction) to withhold any amount from such payment in respect of tax, such party will notify the other party of the requirement to make such a deduction or withholding from its payment. Following such notification, before the party that will receive the reduced payment can terminate the currency swap transaction, it must use reasonable efforts to attempt, either (i) to transfer all its rights and obligations under the currency swap transaction in accordance with the terms of the swap agreement or (ii) to replace the affected currency swap transaction(s) with economically equivalent transactions, in both cases so as to avoid any such requirement to withhold any amount in respect of tax. In circumstances in which the relevant affected party is not able to make such a substitution or effect such restructuring, then the other party may be entitled to attempt to transfer the currency swap transaction to another swap counterparty or effect a restructuring so that such withholding or deduction is no longer required. If neither party is able to arrange for the transfer (or affect the restructuring) of the swap transaction, as set out above, the party receiving the payment in relation to which such deduction or withholding on account of tax has been applied will be entitled to terminate the currency swap transaction.

Rating Downgrade or Withdrawal

If the swap counterparty is downgraded below the ratings specified in the swap agreement (in accordance with the requirements of Standard & Poor's and Moody's), or if the rating of the swap counterparty is withdrawn by either Standard & Poor's or Moody's, then the swap counterparty will, in accordance with the provisions of, and subject to the timeframes specified in, the swap agreement, be required to take certain remedial measures which may include: (a) providing collateral in accordance with the Credit Support Annex (as further described below), (b) obtaining a guarantee from a guarantor that satisfies the requirements specified in the swap agreement, (c) transferring the swap agreement to an entity that satisfies the requirements specified in the swap agreement, or (d) in respect of a downgrade or rating withdrawal by Standard & Poor's only, taking such other actions as it may agree with Standard & Poor's. If the swap counterparty is downgraded further by Standard and Poor's and/or Moody's, the options available to the swap counterparty to remedy such further downgrade may be more restricted and more onerous.

If the swap counterparty is downgraded by Standard & Poor's or Moody's and the swap counterparty fails to comply with the applicable ratings downgrade provisions as set out in the swap agreement, the issuing entity may terminate the swap agreement in accordance with the terms of the swap agreement. Where the swap counterparty provides collateral in accordance with the terms of the swap agreement, such collateral will be credited to the issuing entity distribution account and amounts in respect of such collateral may be returned by the issuing entity to the swap counterparty from time to time in accordance with the terms of the swap agreement and the Credit Support Annex.

The swap counterparty may, subject to certain conditions specified in the swap agreement, including certain requirements of Standard & Poor's and Moody's, transfer its rights and obligations in respect of the swap agreement to another entity.

Credit Support Annex

The swap counterparty will enter into a 1995 ISDA Credit Support Annex (Bilateral Form Transfer) with the issuing entity (the "Credit Support Annex") on or prior to the closing date in support of the swap counterparty's obligations under the swap agreement.

Pursuant to the terms of the Credit Support Annex, if at any time the swap counterparty is required to provide collateral in respect of any of its obligations under the swap agreement, the Credit Support Annex will provide that, from time to time and subject to the conditions specified in the Credit Support Annex and the swap agreement, the swap counterparty will make transfers of cash or securities by way of collateral to the issuing entity in support of its obligations under the swap agreement and the issuing entity will be obliged to return such collateral in accordance with the terms of the Credit Support Annex.

Interest Deferral

In certain circumstances payments due to be made by either party under the swap agreement may be deferred and to the extent such payments are deferred interest shall accrue in respect thereof.

Transfers

Any transfer by the issuing entity of its interests under a swap agreement to any other entity shall be subject to the consent of the note trustee, Standard & Poor's and Moody's.

The issuing entity may transfer any interest under a swap agreement to any other entity with the swap counterparty's prior written consent, except that such consent is not required in the case of a transfer, charge or assignment to the note trustee as contemplated in the note trust deed or any note trust deed supplement thereto.

The swap counterparty may transfer all its rights and obligations with respect to a swap agreement to any other entity (a "Transferee") subject to the satisfaction of certain conditions, including, but not limited to the following:

- (a) it has given five Business Days prior written notice to the note trustee;
- (b) the Transferee is an eligible replacement, as defined in the Moody's rating methodology, and the Transferee's short-term, unsecured and unsubordinated debt obligations are then rated not less than "A-1" by Standard & Poor's (or its equivalent by any substitute rating agency) or such Transferee's obligations under the swap agreement are guaranteed by an entity whose short-term, unsecured and unsubordinated debt obligations are then rated not less than "A-1" by Standard & Poor's (or its equivalent by any substitute rating agency) provided that Standard & Poor's has confirmed that the rating of the notes will not be adversely affected by such guarantee;
- (c) a termination event or an event of default does not occur under the swap agreement as a result of such transfer;
- (d) the Transferee contracts with the issuing entity on terms that (1) have the same economic effect as the terms of the swap agreement in respect of any obligation (whether absolute or contingent) to make payment or delivery after the effective date of such transfer and (2) insofar as they do not relate to payment or delivery obligations, are, in all material respects, no less beneficial for the issuing entity than the terms of the swap agreement immediately before such transfer; and
- (e) (if the Transferee is domiciled in a different country from both the swap counterparty and the issuing entity) Standard & Poor's has provided prior written notification that the then current ratings of the notes will not be adversely affected.

PORTFOLIO INFORMATION

The following tables show information relating to the historic performance of Eligible Accounts originated using Barclays' underwriting criteria. The receivables from these accounts will ultimately back the notes and comprise the receivables trust (the "Securitised Portfolio"). All Eligible Receivables arising on designated product lines, as described under "The Receivables — Assignment of Receivables to the Receivables Trustee" in the base prospectus, are included in the Securitised Portfolio.

No static pool data has been provided in relation to the Securitised Portfolio. Static pool data may indicate a different performance profile in relation to the Securitised Portfolio from that which is disclosed herein.

Receivable Yield Considerations

The following table sets forth the gross revenues from finance charges and fees billed to accounts in the Securitised Portfolio, for each of the years ended 2009, 2008, 2007, 2006, 2005, 2004 and 2003. Each table has been provided by Barclaycard. These revenues vary for each account based on the type and volume of activity for each account. The historical yield figures in these tables are calculated on an accrual basis. Collections of receivables included in the receivables trust will be on a cash basis and may not reflect the historical yield experience in the table. For further detail, please see the base prospectus.

Delinquency and Loss Experience

The following tables set forth the delinquency and loss experience of the Securitised Portfolio for each of the periods shown. The Securitised Portfolio includes platinum, gold and classic VISA® and MasterCard® credit cards and the Premier VISA® charge card. The Securitised Portfolio currently does not include the portfolio of credit card accounts purchased from Clydesdale Financial Services in May 2003 or the portfolio of credit card accounts purchased from Discover Financial Service's UK operations in April 2008. Because the economic environment may change, we cannot assure you that the delinquency and loss experience of the Securitised Portfolio will be the same as the historical experience set forth below.

The delinquency statistics are obtained from billing cycle information as opposed to month end positions.

Maturity Assumptions

The following table sets forth the highest and lowest cardholder monthly payment rates for the Securitised Portfolio during any month in the periods shown and the average cardholder monthly payment rates for all months during the periods shown, in each case calculated as a percentage of total opening monthly receivables outstanding during the periods shown. Payment rates shown in the table are based on amounts which would be deemed payments of Principal Receivables and Finance Charge Receivables with respect to the related credit card accounts.

The following tables summarise the Securitised Portfolio by various criteria as of the billing dates of accounts in the month ending on 30 June 2010. Each table has been provided by Barclays Bank PLC. Because the future composition of the Securitised Portfolio may change over time, these tables are not necessarily indicative of the composition of the Securitised Portfolio at any time subsequent to 30 June 2010.

For an indication of the credit quality of the cardholders whose receivables are included in the Securitised Portfolio, investors should refer to the discussion under "Barclaycard and the Barclaycard Card Portfolio" in the accompanying base prospectus (page 77), and to the historical performance of the Securitised Portfolio included in this prospectus supplement/final terms. In particular, significant indicatives of the credit quality are the accountholders' payment behaviour summarized in the table "Composition by Payment Behaviour — Securitised Portfolio" (page 20) and the delinquency profile of the Securitised Portfolio set forth in the tables "Composition by Period of Delinquency — Securitised Portfolio" (page 19) and "Delinquency and Loss Experience — Securitised Portfolio" (page 15).

After the offering, the offering price and other selling terms may be changed by the series dealer.

In connection with the sale of these series 10-1 notes, the series dealers may engage in:

- over-allotments, in which members of the syndicate selling these series 10-1 notes sell more notes than the issuing entity actually sold to the syndicate, creating a syndicate short position;
- stabilising transactions, in which purchases and sales of these series 10-1 notes may be made by the members of the selling syndicate at prices that do not exceed a specified maximum;
- syndicate covering transactions, in which members of the selling syndicate purchase these series 10-1 notes in the open market after the offering has been completed in order to cover syndicate short positions; and
- penalty bids, by which the series dealer reclaims a selling concession from a syndicate member when any of these series 10-1 notes originally sold by that syndicate member are purchased in a syndicate covering transaction to cover syndicate short positions.

These stabilising transactions, syndicate covering transactions and penalty bids may cause the price of these series 10-1 to be higher than it would otherwise be. These transactions, if commenced, may be discontinued at any time.

The issuing entity has agreed to indemnify the series dealers against certain liabilities, including liabilities under applicable securities laws.

The gross proceeds of the issue of the class A notes will be $500,000,000 and the gross proceeds of the issue of the class D notes will be £55,600,000. The fees and commissions payable on the issue of the notes will not be deducted from the gross proceeds of the issue. The issuing entity will use its reasonable endeavours to claim an amount equal to such fees and commissions under the Indemnity Agreement such that Barclays Bank PLC shall reimburse the issuing entity for its payment of such fees and commissions. The proceeds of the issue of the notes after exchanging such amounts into sterling pursuant to the relevant swap agreement will be applied by the issuing entity to purchase the series 10-1 medium term note issued by the MTN issuing entity on the relevant closing date. The net proceeds of the issue of the class A notes will be $498,750,000 and the net proceeds of the class D notes will be £55,600,000.
