

EXECUTIVE BIOGRAPHY

Robert Flowerday

Robert Flowerday is director of Business Development for CSC Global Financial Markets where he focuses on the EMEA Loan Agency business, Loan Portfolio Administration business, and loan closing. Robert works closely with regional colleagues across the United States and Asia-Pacific to ensure global client coverage and solutions.

Robert has more than 30 years of professional experience in global banking and financial services. Most recently, Robert worked for a number of years at The Bank of New York Mellon (BNYM) as head of Asset Solutions EMEA, where he was responsible for establishing and building the successful third-party EMEA Loan Agency business. In addition, Robert has wide experience and intimate knowledge of the loan asset space, including loan portfolio administration, CLOs, loan closing, and the broader corporate trust product array.

Prior to BNYM, Robert worked as a director at Lehman Brothers in London where he established and managed the Structured Loans Group covering real estate, structured finance, and securitisation. Robert has also held senior roles at Gartmore, Kleinwort Benson, and Citibank.

Robert holds a degree in business administration from Kingston University.
